CHRISTMAS BROCHURE 2024

THE LAMBTON WORM

A Christmas Tale

Upon a frozen Christmas Eve in Chester-le-Street, young John Lambton did stray from kirk to cast his line in River Wear. When he hauled up a queer, wriggling beast, ne'er did he ken 'twas the dreadful Worm. Feared, he flung it down a well, leaving it to be forgot as years passed.

Come Yuletide years hence, the village did prepare for merriment, but woe befell them. The Worm, now a monstrous hulk, burst forth to plague the folk and devour their Christmas cheer. John, now a knight of renown, returned from Crusades to find his home in sorrow.

Ridden with guilt, John sought counsel from a wise crone who dwelt at village's edge. She spake that to fell the Worm, he must don spiky armour and confront 't by the light of the Christmas Star.

On Christmas night, beneath the star's bright gleam, John clad himself in steel and spikes and faced the Worm by the river's flow. After a fierce clash, John did best the beast, and the village was saved ere the morrow.

The villagers, in mirth and joy, did partake of a grand Christmas feast, their peace restored. Each year thereafter, they gather 'neath the Christmas Star at the Lambton Worm inn, honoring the brave knight with hearty fare, warm fellowship, and festal cheer.
